ADOPTION APPLICATION

Thank you for wanting to adopt from Absolutely Purrfect!

The cats and kittens in our care have been rescued by us from abandonment, abuse, neglect, and other forms of cruelty. It is our responsibility to these animals to make certain that each person who adopts is aware of the responsibilities of pet guardianship. Our requirements help us ensure that the cats adopted from us will receive life-long veterinary care, as well as compassionate and humane treatment. Please understand then that failure to comply with adoption requirements and/or giving false information in this application and/or to any of our members will result in being denied for adoption.

All cats rescued by Absolutely Purrfect are given preliminary health care and monitored while in foster care, but there is always a chance that the cat is harboring an illness without showing any symptoms. Are you prepared to be fully responsible for immediate medical care for this animal if illness should occur?

Yes No

Yearly vet exams are integral to the health of any pet. Spaying/neutering and vaccinations are required by state law. Annual visits for an altered adult cat can cost $50-$100. Kittens can cost double this amount due to initial monthly vaccinations and wormings. Food, litter, and other supplies can cost $100-$200 for each pet each year. Do you have the financial resources to properly care for this animal?
